

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary was born a princess in the year 1207.

She loved God and she prayed often. Elizabeth gave food, money, and her belongings to the poor. She often gave loaves of bread to the poor which miraculously transformed into roses. Elizabeth also built a hospital to care for sick people. The feast day of Saint Elizabeth of Hungary is November 17 th.

She is the patron saint of brides, bakers, hospital patients, and the homeless.

